

1,000 BOOKS BEFORE KINDERGARTEN

The idea of reading 1,000 books can sound pretty overwhelming, but you can do it, we promise!

Let's break it down a little bit:

- If you read just 1 book a night, you will have read about 365 books in a year. That is 730 books in two years and 1,095 books in three years.
- Don't have three years to work with? No sweat! Read two or three books each night, you'll be there in no time.

Children will receive a celebratory sticker at each 100 books completed along with other fun prizes along the way!

Start strong with a free book at sign up! Choose from a variety of old & new classics to get the ball rolling.

Wow, you're halfway there! Reward your hard work with a bookworm stuffy.

You did it! Solidify your bookworm status with new bag, book themed puzzle, activity book, and be featured on our Wall of Fame! You'll also be invited to a celebratory party held once a year for challenge completors.
